Draw the sword and bare the arm! Let the Flag of Freedom float! Nations hear the wild alarm-Millions sound the tocsin note: On the hills where thousands met, Terrible in war's array, Gleam again bright Bayonet! Cymbals clash, and Trumpets bray!

Islands of the Deep, rejoice! Tribes of Bramah, weep no more! Canada, lift up thy voice! China, guard thy secret shore! Egypt, shout again in pride: Old Caffraria, sleep alone-Greece, awake! on Athos' side-Western India, cease thy groan!

Lo, a Nation of a day Arms herself to meet thy foe; Millions, on their winding way, Like their mountain torrents flow ! Hark! the drums of Bennington Rattle to the Southern fife! Mothers urge the Legions on-Sisters cheer the stream of life.

Onward, onward, rolls the tide! Hills and vallies, woods and plains, Pour their tribute far and wide, Echoing to the martial strains: Flags that long in dust have hong, Crimsoned with the blood of old, Proudly to the brreeze are flung, Glittering with their stars of Gold!

Come, thou Mistress of the Sca, Rush upon the buckler'd host! Here are men, to battle thee, Noble as thy ranks can boast; Banners, borne on Bunker Hill-Cannons, trom thy soldiers torn-Swords, that crossed the highland hill, In the Revolution's morn! VI.

With her ensign floating free, Spite of battle, storm and tides-On the margin of the sea, Sits the dark Old Ironsides! Sentinels their vigils keep, Where thy naval heroes bled; Cannons in their port-holes sleep, Mighty ones who trod her deck, When thy benner sank in shame, O'er a sad and bloody wreck, Live to battle in her name! High their glorious pendants wave, Beautiful amid a host! Come! and find an early grave-Come! they'll teach thee how to boast.

God of Battles! bare thy hand! Let thy red-wing'd cohorts fly! Liberty maintains her stand, In the apple of thine eye! In her train Thy servants kneel-Underneath thy Cross, they form; Guide them, in the battle's wheel-Save them, in the drea Hul storm !

Washington, Nov. 22. From the November Knickerbocker. THE DAY-DREAM OF A GROCER.

BY BARRY FEARCO. "A.Bubble, a-bubble, a-bubble, rubble, rubble rubble, ubble, ubble, ubble, ble, ble, and a half, and a half, and a half, alf, alf, alf, f-f-f-f, and a half; did you say a half? - will you say a half? I mean to give you the wines, gentlemen; I mean to do it; I will give you the wines; a half it is; thank you, Isaac ; I must have my commissions, gentlemen ; I must have 'em:-thank you, Isaac-good old soul! Isaac bids twelve; a-rubble, a-rubble, a-rubble, and a half; go it strong. Isaac! go it strong, I say; and a half, and a half, and a half, alf, alf, alf, alf, f--f-f-f; won't you give any more ?- won't you? nor you? Then I must give it to Isaac, at and a half." ly receive it as though he had never heard it before. silently away, seeming to say, "It is too late; we cie for them until they were all taken in. The Isaac's sons were the greatest rakes about town, are very happy now."

losing its flavor. This was an important point to blessed privileges of the Sahbath as well myself; erely pelied by the mob with sticks and stones, that decide, and the deliberation with which Isaac con- and I would take the lowest seat, and give to the they soon beat a retreat, and left the ground. As the cerity. He had scruples, beyond a question, consci- ture of my pew have cost! entions scruples too - for Isaac was a communicant in a fashionable Dutch church, and he had been he began to breathe easier. The terrible load up-made by the authorities to restore order. The that he had the good of souls at heart.

the land of Nod like a manacled slave. There he his clutches. against the wall, and his head kept upright by his the grocer upon the back; 'what! a sleep?' fat double chin, unable to move or speak a word. 'Save me! save me!' exclaimed Mr. Demijohn, His spirit had passed away from the spot in which starting upon his feet. his body was located, and while all around were conscious of his corporeal presence, he was not him- tude of voices. self conscious of any thing that was passing near him. In all, save appearance, he was like a skele- claimed the amazed grocer. 'Has the sale comton at an Egyptian feast. He had purposely placed menced? Has lot forty-one been sold? himself in a corner where no one but the auctionthey would try to out-bid him, to show their superi- self, and two-thirds of the catalogue beside." or judgment to the rest of the world. And there he sat, every now and then nodding at the auction- have not bid at all ? said Isaac. eer, whose imperfect vision would not allow him inhabited that happy looking corporation was then brought to a close; consequently we cannot at undergoing a probationary residence with the this time lay the result before the reader. But as troubled spirits in Tophet? So little of an index Mr Demijohn himself is concerned it is a matter of to the mind are the outward developments of the small moment how the affair may terminate, as land. person. Although Isaac was asleep in the auc- that respectable gentleman took his departure very tion-room, he was wide awake in another place .- suddenly from this wicked world a few months af-Though he was deaf to the winning voice of Mr. ter the events recorded in this essay occurred; years; a dog lives 20 years; a wolf 20,; a fox 15; a terrible voice that none heard but himself.

in when left alone tete-a-tete with his conscience! Hadson, a few miles from the City Hall, But if it is terrible in a day-dream with the blessed light of day shining full upon you, and many voices chattering around you, what must it be when one is lying with the cold earth upon his breast, and dismal night-winds howling around his solitary hiding-place! It is too fearful for thought; and so it fail, and for the purpose of bringing the history of appeared to Isaac Demijohn, Esq. while like a dared not offer a word in his own defence. Rich progenting of writing you an account of the as he was, Mr. Demijohn would have given all he and delivered him from his troublesome condition. But no one discovered that he was asleep, or a dozen hand- would have instantly raised for his res- led, in the State were illegal, they could not be colcue; and the auctioneer rattled away with his lub- lected by law. This, with the late failure of the ble, a-lubble, a-lubble, a-lubble, and a half, and a half, and a half, af, af, as other men in other places will rattle away at their various employments, and the determination of our butchers, expressed wholly regardless and careless of the suffering and griefs of those around them.

But what could possibly disturb so respectable a very elevated position in society; he was a bank director, and a subscriber to all the charitable enterprises of the day; he was looked up to by his neighbors, and when men spoke of him in the street he was said to be "as good as old wheat." Yet in spite of all these things Isaac would have sold himself for a sixpence. A monstrous weight was lyupon his breast, compared with which one of the and yet oppressive thought, it was only a fulse weight; and the spirits that so troubled him were pure spirits; yes pure spirits, that he had mixed with brandy. Where was the harm in that? He could always aver with exact truth to his customers that he sold nothing but a pure article. Then there were tares springing up all around him, choking his path whithersoever he turned, and entanghorribly he was beset by these things, which though they took no fixed shape, were so palpable and unquestionable that he knew them at a glance; and once occurred to him to shift them off upon some-

After awhile these passed away, and then a poor wretch come along with suffering in his looks, and Isaac trembled at his cruel glances. It was an unfortunate neighbor, from whom he had taken usury many years before, and who had been in his grave twelve and a half :-- put it down to Isaac at twelve a long time. What a malicious creature he must he to bear malice so long! Close upon his heels These were the identical words that came rat- came a maddened multitude of wo-stricken beings, on the vault was now resumed, while a detachment these were the identical words that came late every one of whom gave him a reproachful look, of the rioters drove the Sheriff of the ground.— Windmill, Esquire, the auctioneer. Every body is "But for you we had been happy and bless: d; it There were by this time, 11 o'clock, probably three sent. a squire in these days, but, above every body else, was you who sold us rum; it was you who wasted or four thousand men present. All the stores in rich auctioneers. Mr. Windmill was a Falstaif in our bodies and drugged our souls with sin and mishis profession;—he had enormous jowls, the most comical crispy hair conceivable, and a part of the lord! how they grinned and chatter the neighborhood were filled with spectators.—

About this time the mob broke into the Miami funniest hazel eyes that ever an auctioneer was blessed with; but they were entirely useless to him What a dismal howling they set up, and how they uated two doors above the Bank of Cincinnati. without the aid of a pair of gold-mounted specta- glared upon him with their red and swollen eyes! Here every thing they could lay their hands on was cles, and even with this aid the owner could not The sweat started in big drops upon his forehead destroyed by the mob; the furniture and fixtures distinguish a hand-saw at any respectable distance: and rolled down his unconscious cheeks, which were smashed, the books and papers were torn up The occasion on which the emphatic words above as red and as jolly as though their proprietor were and cast into the streets, and finally the vault was recorded was uttered, was a sale of wines, by cata- reclining upon a Sybarite's bed of roses. As this commenced on, which was soon opened. A conlogue and sample; and the gentleman whose name miserable multitude gradually melted away into the siderable amount of money was abstracted, in notes was repeated with such unction by Mr. Windmill dim space whence they emerged, there came oth- and specie, which was, however, recovered, and was repeated with such dischool by Mr. Wildings whose down-cast the robbers arrested and sent to jail. The Ameriof Conties Slip, who had breathed the atmosphere eyes and sad features were a thousand times more cans did not show any disposition to plunder, and of that favored spot ever since he came into this harrowing to him than the noise of the excited and I observed that most of those who hung around the breathing world. Isaac was very rich, rich enough, every one thought but himself, and he enjoyed all the honors of that happy condition. Nobody, at least no poor body, ever had the audacity to call in question the correctness of his opinion. All his cripples; the most feeble of all feeble tolk, whose dation and was to be wound up, it was again shut. sayings had an orphic tendency; and his jokes very helplessness gave them now the power of giwere always sure to command an explosion of mirth. This is one of the choicest blessings that wealth can bestow;—to know that your wit will be wealth can bestow;—to know that your wit will be wealth can bestow;—to know that your wit will be wealth can be stow;—to know that your wit will be well be stored.

The stored is a fair to come to command an explosion of the choicest blessings that we will be a fair to come to command an explosion of the choicest blessings that we will be a fair to come to command an explosion of the choicest blessings that we will be a fair to come to command an explosion of the choicest blessings that we will be a fair to come to command an explosion of the choicest blessings that we will be a fair to come to command an explosion of the choicest blessings that the command an explosion of the choicest blessings that the command and the choicest blessings that and gave unquestionable evidence of their ending And then Isaac was left all alone to his thoughts. notes, of which there is a large amount in the hands their lives in an alms-house :-- his daughters too, How dreadfully dark it was! How vast the empty of the citizens; but this he positively refused to having been stinted in their education, because space in which he hung! How dreadful to be de- do. The mob then commenced and completely their father was determined open dying a rich man, serted, even by his tormenting persecutors, and left gutted the Exchange Bank, drove off Bates and were idle, extravagant, and silly, and much sought all alone to the reproaches of his conscience! He broke into the vault; but he had a few minutes beGoliah. He looked at the bar keeper and replied ont of dam of No. 8.—Brown Filly [3 years old] by Knickerbocker, The subscribers are prepared to execute all kinds of by taking one of the Misses Demijohn to wife; - had given so much money come to his assistance? An attack was now made on Louger & Co.'s and yet many young gentlemen whose whole pur- Why did not the reverend doctor under whose broker's office, on the opposite corner. This Lousuit was happiness, paid them the most assiduous attentions, with the hope of winning their favor.

Such are some of the blessings attached to riches.

Such are some of the blessings attached to riches.

Such are some of the blessings attached to riches.

Why did not the reverent dector date whose whole purposite corner. This build-preaching he had slept so many Sundays come and speak a consolatory word in his ear? This was ponsible paper, which came under the decision of myself to John H. Kennedy, of Cumberland County—to the Court in Bank alluded to above. This build-wit: 1st Note is for $225, due on 1st March, 1842; 2d Jolly Air, Whynot, Skipwith's Black, Apollo, imp. Isaac was a first-rate judge of liquors. You abyss of nothingness. He could not endure it; ing was also destroyed, and the safe opened by viously have thought he held the destiny of all the said, 'is this the end of states and territories in his hand, if you could have all my speculating? Is it for this that I have toiled hours before, as the attack had been anticipated.—

Intervitories, indicated to above. I his builded to above. I his builded to above. I his builded with the safe opened by vious do. is for $275, due on 25th Dec. 1842; both dated 10th lence; but every thing valuable had been removed hours before, as the attack had been anticipated.—

Silver Eye, imp. Jolly Roger, imp. Mary Gray.

No. 11.—C. C. (2 years old) by imp. Glencoe certain conditions well known to the said John H. Ken. seen with what profound deliberation he drew his proof-glass from the bung-hole of a brandy-pipe and proof-glass from the bung-hole of a brandy-pipe and proof-glass from the bung-hole of a brandy-pipe and lawyer of this city, attempted to read the riot act, a lawyer of this city, attempted to read the riot act, broad mare feated broad applied it to his plethoric lips; and then with what round me?—the cheap luxury of doing good, and when the mob dismounted him from his rostrum, a solemn shake of the head he intimated a forth- all? Did I wrong these poor people only that my sons and made him take to his heels—he was chased by coming veto on the quality of the liquor. You should squander my earnings upon wantons and about three hundred men to the Pearl street House, would have sworn that nothing short of a constitu- profligates, and that I might myself be wretched where he obtained shelter. Such a Fox chase, in a lasmonable Dutch church, and he had deen de bigat of the land of November, A. D. 1841, one Thomas Bledson, of the frequently called upon to hand round the plate for on his chest grew lighter; and although he heard Mechanics' and Traders' Bank in the vicinity, an of November, A. D. 1841, one Thomas Bledson, of the missionary purposes. As the flavor of good wine strange noises ringing in his car, they did not ap- "Individual Responsibility" concern, was run on bout a man engaged in such pious pursuits, even example that was set me. I have been quite as The City Council met soon after the commencewhen engaged with more worldly matters. And good as my neighbors. I must provide for my ment of the riot, and authorized the City Marshal no one who saw Isaac deliberating over a pipe of family. I pay my debts, and others must do the brandy or a hogshead of molosses, and knew what a same, or take the consequence. I do not see why lively interest he took in the heathen, could doubt I should be bound to provide for all the poor devils Bank of Cincinnati was forced, but nothing of in the world. Let them take care of themselves value was found. During last night every thing The day on which we introduced him to the no- as I do. And as for walking to church, when I remained quiet. tice of the reader, he had been engaged in tasting can afford to ride, that's a doctrine that I wo'n't -smelling-and comparing an unusually long cata- sub-cribe to.' Thus he began to comfort himself, logue of choice wines, and he no sooner scated him- as his breathing grew freer; and instead of his short self on one of the wooden benches in Mr. Wind- struggling respiration he fairly snored aloud; and mill's auction-room, than, a heavy drowsiness came and as he drew a good long breath from the depths over him, which he tried in vain to shake off. Let of his capacious chest, all the vile phantoms that him change his position as he might, or open his had been harrowing his soul took flight. It was a eyes ever so wide, he could not resist the di-posi- short respite, however; for the next moment he tion to slumber which overpowered him. Sleep felt a shock that sent the blood in a tumultuous seemed to rain its influence upon him; and, in spite current from his head into the extremities of his of his anxiety to bid, he was forced to yield to body. Now he thought his time was indeed come sat, with his catalogue and pencil in hand, his back 'Hallo! Isaac!' said Mr. Windmill, as he struck

'Ha! ha! ha!-ho! ho! ho! roared a multi-

'Where am I !- what have I been doing !' ex-'Lot forty-one been sold?' repeated the auctioneer could see his motions, for he knew that when cer; bless my precious picture!-what question younger grocers saw him hid upon a particular lot, that is for you to ask! Why you bought it your-

'I!-I bid two-thirds of the catalogue! Sir,

And here, as the novel writers have it, an eclair to discover that Isaac was stuck fast in an apoplec- cissement took place, but not a settlement; for tic slumber; so he took all his nods for bids, and Isaac refused to take the wines that had been knocked down to him some hard bargains, that knocked down to him, and Mr. Windmill forth-Who would have guessed that the soul which been instituted only four years has not yet been Windmill, he could not shut the ears of his soul to and the anxious reader may find his many virtues

> GREAT MOB IN CINCINNATI. From the Cincinnati Correspondence of the Baltimore Sun.

Cincinnati, Jan. 12, 1812. Gentlemen :- For fear the newspaper mail might events down to as late a period as possible, I have this city, which commenced yesterday morning .was worth if some kind hand had but touched him I will promise by stating that our court in bank duas the sistes of all the unauthorised banks, so cal-Lebanon Bank, a large amount of which paper was in circulation here at the time of its explosion, through the public prints, not to receive the notes of certain banks, all conspired to create a nervousness of feeling in the community, which has resulted in person as Isaac Demijohn, E-q.? He occupied a the outbreak, the particulars of which I am now about to relate. Before eight o'clock on yesterday morning, a number of citizens principally merchants, and residing in what is called. "Flat-iron square," were noticed at the corner of Main and Third streets ;the crowd gradually increased to several hundreds by 9 o'clock. Their object was to exchange the notes of the Bank of Cincinnati, a galvanized congranite pillars of the new Exchange were a feather; cern, and others, for some other and less suspicious institutions, and apparently determined to revenge themselves in case the banks should refuse or be unable to make the desired exchange. At the hour of opening, a notice was stuck on the door of the banking house, notifying the public that, in consequence of the failure of the Miami Exporting Company's Bank. (which had made an assignment the day before,) the Bank of Cincinnati ling his feet; but these were false tares. How had suspended payment for twenty days. This was enough-the crowd immediately entered the Bank vi et armis, and commenced the demolition of every thing they could lay their hands on .furthermore, he knew them to be his own. It never Books, papers, desks, and counters were thrown into the streets, together with reams of unsigned sheets of bank notes. The mob then attacked the vault with crow-bars, sledge-hammers, &c. &c. -During this operation the sheriff made his appearance, and called on the citizens for assistance, but a speech, but he might as well bave preached to sent the postmaster, store, or tavern keeper, &c., the winds or reasoned with despair." The work crowd now required him to redeem the West Union tional scruple or a Virginia abstraction could induce such a mighty caution. But Isaac never troubled his head about such unprofitable articles as abstract ideas:—the main question with him was which of two brands would bear the most mixing,—whether "Pellevoism" or "A Seignette" would be in my religiwhich of two brands would bear the most mixing, penny! And how devout I would be in my religiwhether "Pellevoism" or "A Seignette" would ous duties! Instead of going to church in a coach, alleged remissness of duty during the late "nights." Raleigh, Oct. 11, 1811.

take the greatest quantity of pure spirits without I would walk, that my coachman might enjoy the war." The Sheriff and the "Guards" were so sevsidered the subject was undoubted proof of his sin- poor all that the velvet cushions and gaudy furni- rear files left the scene of action, being hard pressed,

FROM HAYTI.

Port Au Prince papers of the 19th ult, represent great excitement prevailing in the place, produced by violent attacks of some of the papers on the French Consul General, M. Lavasseur, which finally resulted in the Consul's demanding his pass- Counties respectively. And I do moreover hereby enports, and retiring on board the French man of war. join and require all Officers of this State, whether Civil It seems that a report had been current that coun-terfeit money to the amount of $600,000 was ex-or cause to be apprehended, the fugitive offenders rected to arrive from either France or the United aforesaid. its resistless but gentle power, and be borne off to and that the Enemy of Mankind had him fast in States, and a strict watch was kept upon all vessels arriving from these quarters. Subsequent inquiries resulted in the detection of a large amount of counterfeit money in the possession of a brother of the Consul's Secretary, a Frenchman. Of this the Consul was notified, and a request made that By His Excellency's command, two French vessels of war, stationed on the roads, should search every vessel coming in, which measure resulted in the seizure of the ship St. Jacques, from Havre, on board of which counterfeit money to the amount of 300,000 dollars in notes was found most ingeniously concealed in marble tombstones, one hundred and eighty or mnety pounds. whereof her cargo partly consisted, consigned to was poured out upon the Consul and the French pur is no doubt known by many persons in the South-nation, that the Consul demanded of the President or States. nation, that the Consul demanded of the President ern States. would have ruined the credit of a younger grocer, with commenced a suit against him, which having a public declaration that the prisoner had been placed on board the frigate at his (Boyer's) request. With this Boyer refused to comp'y from the fear of public indignation : hard words ensued, and the of B. B. SMITH, Esq., on Fayetteville street, where he result was as above stated; the Consul left the is- may always be found, when not absent on Professional

Age of Animals .- A bear rarely exceeds 20 vears; a dog lives 20 years; a wolf 20,; a fox 15; beck whres ANTI-DYSPEPTIC PILLS—lions are long lived - Pompey lived to the age of an excellent Medicine—for sale at the Office of Lord! What an uncomfortable position a man is Honey-Suckle Cemetery, on the banks of the relor hare 7 or 8 years. Elephants have been box. known to live to the great age of 400 years. When Alexander the Great had conquered one Phorus, King of India, he took a great elephant which had fought valiantly for the king, and named him Ajax, Nov. 9, 1841. dedicated him to the Sun, and let him go with this inscription-"Alexander, the son of Jupiter, hath dedicated Ajax to the Sun." This elephant was found with this inscription 350 years afterto the age of 107.

> From the Wilmington Chronicle, Jan. 19." SEIZURE.

The British Brig Augusta, from Jamaica, was State. law, several casks of rum of smaller dimensions cations. any purpose to defraud, as the importation was re- respectable private families in the village, at $8 per gularly entered at the Custom House, and the month Secretary of the Treasury will doubtless, upon representation of the case, waive the inforcement of

An unfortunate accident happened to Wm. S. was out hunting on horseback, the horse stumbled, dians. and his gun, which he held in his right hand, was by some means fired off, the whole charge passing through his left wrist, shattering the bone so badly Warrenton, N. C. Dec. 4, 1811 that amputation of the arm may be necessary.

NEWSPAPER LAW

The law is, and so the courts decide, that the Alex. Hall, M. D. person to whom a paper is sent, is responsible for Hon. D. Turner, the payment, if he receive the paper or make use Wm. Plummer, Esq. of it, even though he never subscribed for it. His duty in such cases is not to take the paper from the office or place where it is left, but to notify the publisher that he does not wish it. If papers are none was affored; they seemed delighted with this sent to a post office, store, tavern or other place, summary process. He then endeavored to make and are not taken by the person to whom they are is responsible for the payment, unless he iramediately gives notice to the publisher, that they are not taken from the place or office where they are your office are not taken out by the persons to whom of imported Mary Gray, see Skinner's British and they are sent, you will give immediate notice of it American Stud Book page 115. Giles Scroggins, (sire to the publisher, adding the reason, if known, why of Little Punch) was by Ames' Old Sir Archy, dam by the papers are not taken out."

Extract from the Post Office Regulations page

General.- "A postmaster may enclose money in a letter to the publisher of a newspaper, to pay the Scroggins, dam (Edmund Irby's Calypso) by Bellair, subscriptions of a third person, and frank the letter, grand dam (Irby's celebrated Dare Devil mare, the if written by himself."

than by the manner in which he draws that of of imp. mare Blazella.

A person was lately brought before the police court, Boston, for stealing a dog belonging to the Suffolk Bank. The Times wittily calls this stealing a "bank security."

appreciated by discerning listeners, and that should would give my coach-horses for the use of these culation by Bates, and which he had advertised to ten, but Virtue will remain for ever. Planted on you chance, through forgetfulness, to tell a funny story a second or third time, your auditor will kindstory a second or third time, your addition to the second or third time, your addition to the second or t > went into a tavern with a friend and walked up to be by Diomede. the bar. His friend then, according to agreement, No. 7 -B. F. [3 years old] by imp. Rowton, out of

JOSHUA STEPHENSON. Jan. 19, 1842.

Four Hundred Dollars Reward. PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency, JOHN M. MOREHEAD, Governor, Captain General and Commander-in-Chief of the State of North Carolina: WHEREAS, it has been officially reported to the Executive Department of this State, that on the 19th day

County of Franklin, in the State aforesaid, was feloni am every way prepared to make as fine BOOTS as can will remain in the cask long after its contents have peal with such terrifying distinctness to his fears. all day until six o'clock, P. M., when they shut up ously killed and murdered by one William H. Fallbeen emptied, so will an odor of sanctity hang a. 'After all,' thought Isaac, 'I have only followed the with the promise to open this morning at eight. - RENER, late of said County; who hath fled from justice: niously killed and murdered by one WILLIAM P. JER. durability, with the BEST that is made in any of our NIGAN, late of said County; who hath also fled from justice:

Now, therefore, to the end that the said William H. Falkener and the said William P. Jernigan may be lected by myself with the greatest care, which I will brought to trial, I have thought proper to issue this my Proclamation, offering a Reward of Two Hundred Dollars for the apprehension of each of the fugitives, to any person or persons who may apprehend and deliver them-the said Falkener, to the Sheriff of Frankin County, and the said Jerwigan to the Sheriff of Wayne County, or confine them in the Jails of said or Military, to use their best exertions to apprehend, Given under my hand, as Governor, &c. and the Great Scal of the State of North Carolina. Done at our City of Raleigh, this 22d day of December, A. D. 1841 J. M. MOREHEAD.

PRYOR REYNOLDS, Private Secretary.

DESCRIPTION. FALKENER, is between 40 and 45 years of age, about five feet, five or six inches high, blue eyes, fair skin, the Frenchman. The man was arrested, and Pre- height 4 feet 9 or 10 inches; stout and corpolant, weight, sold to the highest bidder, for cash, at the Court House sident Boyer delivered him up to the Consul for about two hundred pounds, light complexion, counter- door in the city of Raleigh, on the 3d Monday in Februtransportation to France, as the notes were en- ance some-what pleasing, foot small for his size, has ary next, all of the right, title and interest, legal or equigraved in France, and the discovery was made by the habit of repetition in conversation, has resided for table, of the said Company in and to their lot of LAND French frigate. 'The transactions excited the ire several years in Waynesboro', N. C., and acted as in the city of Raleigh, on which their Depot and other of the Haytian press, and so much vituperation Jailor, has had divers transactions with negro traders, buildings are located, together with all Appurtenances

> December 29, 1841. 374-3:n.

WILLIAM W. HOLDEN, Attorney at Law, has removed his Office to No. 5, in the building business. & Claims of any amount thankfully received and promptly attended to. Raleigh, January 1, 1842.

recorded on a very tall marble pillar erected in the 70. The average age of cats is 15 years; a squir- The North Carolina Standard Price, 50 cents per Nov. 24, 1841 -- 369 tf.

FOR SALE-Fifty Shares of Cape Fear Bank Stock -20 Shares of which may be had on very D. W. STONE. l'avorable terms.

WARRENTON MALE ACADEMY.—The Exercises of this Institution will be resumed on the 10th of January next, under the continued superinwards. Pigs have been known to live to the age pal, whose qualifications and experience every way fit of 30 years; the rhinocerous to 20. A horse has him for the duties of an Instructor of Youth. The gentendence of Mr. R. A EZELL, A. M. the present Princibeen known to live to the age of 62, but averaging eral satisfaction he has given, the progress of his scho-25 to 30. Camels sometimes live to the age of 100. lars, their order, regularity, and general good conduct, Stags are long lived. Sheep seldom exceed the evincive of a high and healthy state of discipline, give Asthma, and Inflammation of the Lungs, is a veage of 10. Cows live about 15 years. Cuvier con- every assurance that the effort of the Trustees to place etagble extract, of an agreeable taste, and certain in its considers it probable that whales sometimes live this ancient Academy upon its former high and res- happy results. Price, $1 per buttle. For sale by T. 1,000 years. Mr. Mailerton has the skeleton of a pectable footing have not been unavailing. The su- LORING, General Agent, at the Office of "The North swan that attained the age of 200 years. Pelicans pervision of the morals and general deportment of the Carolina Standard," Raleigh. Also, by W. WARE, are long lived. A tortoise has been known to live students has received a due and proper share of the Wilmington, and by A. PARKS, Hillsboro', N. C. Principal's attention, and it is no less creditable to him, than gratifying and encouraging to the Trustees, that no serious act of immorality has occurred during the present year. The Academy has recently undergone a thorough repair, and is one of the largest, most commodious and comfortable buildings of the kind in the seized last week by the Collector of this Port, Mr. Ezell will be assisted by a young gentleman of for having on board, in violation of the Revenue fine moral character, and of excellent literary qualifithan 90 gallons. It is not at all likely there was Board may be procured with the Principal, or in TERMS for the session of five months: For the Latin, Greek, and French Languages For all the English branches The undersigned, in behalf of the Trustees, confidently recommends the Institution to the public, as in every Ashe, Esq., of this county, a few days ago. He respect, worthy of the patronage of Parents and Guar

WELDON N. EDWARDS, Prest. of Trustees.

TRUSTEES. Geo. E. Spruill, Esq. Wm. Eaton, Jr. Esq. G. D. Baskerville, Esq. T. E. Green, Esq. H. L. Plummer, M D J B. Somervell, Esq. Thos. White, Esq J. W. Hawkins, M D B. E. Cook, Esq.

VALUABLE BLOOD STOCK FOR SALE.

PERSONS desirous of purchasing blood stock would do well to address the sub scriber at Wilmington, N. C. as the follow-No. 1 .- B. M. Little Punch (11 years old,) by Giles

Scroggins, dam (Caroline Smith) by Old Sir Archy, grand dam (Diona) by imp. Dion, g. grand dam (Niss Selden) by imp. Diomede, g. g. grand dam (Wiley Jones, of Halifax, celebrated Wildair mare) by Wildair, Flimnap, imp. Fearnought, imp. Janus, imp. 'In every instance to which papers that come to Jolly Roger, out of imp. Mary Gray. For pedigree imp Bedford, Dare Devil, Wildair, Apollo, Mercury, REMITTANCES BY MAIL-From the Postmaster Fearnought, Jolly Roger, Grenwell's imp. Mare. Seneral.—"A postmaster may enclose money in No. 2.—C. M. Last Scrap, (12 years old) by Giles dam of Contention, &c.) by Dare Devil, Wildair, Batts & Maclin's Fearnought, Godolphin, (he by Old Fearnought, out of an imp. mare,) Hob. or Nob, imp. Jolly Man never delineates more truly his own mind Roger, imp. Valiant, Tryall (he by imp. Traveller, our

> No. 3 -Brown Horse Knickerbocker, (8 years old) by American Eclipse, dam (Janny Deans) by Virgin.

> No. 5.-C. M. (4 years old) by imp. Leviathan, out

No. 6 .- C. M. (4 years old) Festival (he by American Eclipse) her dam by Giles Scroggins, grand dam A loafer once promised never again to call for liquor at a bar. In order to evade this promise, he grand dem [bred by Col. Holmes, of Va.] and said to and may be found at the Eagle Hotel.

No. 9.-C. F. [3 years old] by imp. Leviathan, ou of No. 2.

No. 11.-C. C. (2 years old) by imp. Glencoe out of No. 12 -B. C. (1 year old) by imp. Priam, dam tant General of North Carolinabrood mare Fantail) by old Sir Archy, imp Knowsly, imp. Dion, Old Celer, (his g g g g grand dam one of the fleetest Nags in Va. in her day) was got by Wilmington, N. C., Nov. 10, 1841.

Augusta Races.

FINE DRESS BOOTS

HAVE just returned from Philadelphia, with new setts of Lasts, Boot Trees, Findings, &c., of the most fashionable style, French and Philadelphia Call Skins, Seal and Morocco Skins of the best quality, and be made in the United States. I have workmen that are not surpassed in this country, and trust I shall be remunerated by the patronage Department, that on the 30th of November 1841, JAMES of a liberal public, for the great exertions I have made W. VINSON, of Wayne County, in said State, was felo- to get up work that shall compare, both in taste and Northern cities. I am also receiving at this time, a large assortment of Northern manufactured BOOTS and SHOES, sesell very low for cash, or to prompt customers.

GENTLEMEN'S

Oct. 26, 1841. THE person to whom I loaned my "VICAR OF WAKEFIELD' will very greatly oblige me by

Raleigh, Jan. 7th, 1841. HE Undersigned baving qualified at the last Coun ty Court for Northampton County as Executors to the last Will and Testament of Wm. B. Lockhart, deceased, request all those having claims against the Estate to present their within the time prescribed by law, and those indebted to the Estate will please make returning it.

March 17, 1841.

immediate payment. WM. H. GRAY, | Executors.

BENJ. K. PULLEN.

NOTICE .- By virtue of several Writs of Fieri Facias, to me directed, from the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of the broad mouth, and is getting quite grey, weighs between County of Wake, wherein Messrs. HURT, PATTERSON & WILLS, and others, are Plaintiffs, and the Raleigh JERNIGAN is about thirty eight or forty years of age, and Gaston Rail Road Company are Defendants, will be Depot, with the LAND on which they are located -Also, all of the said RAIL ROAD, as well as the LAND on which it is located, situate in the County of Wake, including the BRIDGES over Neuse River and Crabtree Creek, together with their ENGINES, CARS, &c.

JAMES EDWARDS, Sheriff Dec. 29, 1841.-374 5t. FOR SALE-$2 000 in Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road Bonds, guarantied by the State of N. Carolina-Interest at 6 per cent. per annum, payable in the city of Raleigh semi-annually, on the first Mondays in January and July, and the Principal in January, 1845. D W STONE. Raleigh, Dec 15, 1841 The "Washington (N C) Republican," will inseit the above 6 times, and forw'd acc't to this Office. I OIT'S CORN OIL, recommended as a care for Corns, for sale at the Office of "THE NORTH CAROLINA STANDARD." Price, 25 cents per bottle: $2 per dozen bottles. March 1, 1841.

HE INDIAN ELIXIR, a cure for Cough

A NEW CONCERN! Jos. J. BIGGS. (Successor to Oliver & Smith.)

March 1, 1841.

MERCHANT TAILOR. HE undersigned would respectfully inform the citizens of Raleigh, the public generally, and particularly the triends and patrons of OLIVER & SMITH, that he has bought out the entire interest of said firm. taken the stand occupied by them, and intends carrying on the business in all its various branches as heretolore, He has engaged the services of Mr. OLIVER, and those here:ofore patronizing the establishment may rest assured that no expense or pains will be spared to please. My stock consists of every thing desirable or fashionable and I will keep constantly on hand a supply of the best goods the Northern markets afford.

January 5, 1842. 375-4t

A CARD.

HE subscribers, in taking leave of the public, return them their sincere thanks for the patronage heretofore bestowed upon them; and would earnestly recommend their successor as a gentleman every way worthy of confidence and support, OLIVER & SMITH.

January 5, 1842.

WAKE FOREST PLEASANT GROVE FE-MALE ACADEMY.—The first Session of this School will commence on Monday, the 17th of January instant. The School will be again under the superintendence of Miss MARTHA R. RICHARDSON. TERMS OF TUITION.

pelling, Reading, Writing and Arithmetic, per session. Geography, History, English Grammar and Composition. Natural Philosophy, Watts on the Mind. Rhetoric and Astronomy, Intellectual and Moral Philosophy. Chemistry, Algebra, Geometry, Natural Theology, Physiology, Natural History, Political Economy, Logic and Botany, Greek, Latin, French and Italian, (extra) Drawing and Painting,

5 00 Music on Piano, 15 00 No deduction for loss of time. Board can be had in respectable families, convenient to the Academy, at 6 dollars, per month. JOHN LIGON, Sec'ry. Wake Forest, Jan. 3, 1842.

7510 DYSPEPTICS .- Among the number of distinguished gentlemen who have, from personal experience, expressed themselves in terms of commendation of the effects of Beckwith's Anti Dyspeptic Pills, Mr. VAN BUREN, late President of the United States, ian, grand dam by Bainbridge, g grand dam by Jolly has, upon request, permitted the Proprietor to say, that Air, g g grand dam by Whynot g g g grand having been presented by him some years since with a dam by Skipwith's Black and all Black, g g g g box of his Pills, was induced to take them as a remegrand dam by Apollo, by imp. Silver Eye, imp. Jolly dy for disordered stomach-that he has given them a fair trial, and is well satisfied, that they have con-No. 4.—Bay Horse Bloomsbury (6 years old) out of tributed greatly to the perfect re-establishment of his

> These Pills may be had in any quantities, and upon liberal terms, on application to Dr. John Beckwith, at Raleigh, N. C., by "hom alone they are prepared.

DENTAL SURGERY .- Dr. W. R. Scott informs the public, that he has returned to this city,

HOUSE AND SIGN PAINTING. fmitations of every variety of Marble, and of all kinds of Wood; also, Wall Painting, Paper-hanging, Gilding, Glazing, &c. &c., attended to at the shortest notice, and done in a superior style of workmanship.

Military Plags painted in the neatest style, on the shortest notice, and much cheaper than they can be done elsewhere. [Refer to the Adju-Persons wishing Painting of any description executed, by calling at the Shop next door to the Bank of the State, may expect to have it done to their entire satis-O. & S. FRAZIER. Raleigh, Nov. 3, 1841. con .-- 369-tf.

BLANKS.

Court Blanks, Deeds, Warrants, &c. &c. kept constantly on hand and for sale at the office of The North Carolina Standard.